

Two estimates of the same scalar; each noise standard deviation is 1 unit; equal weights. Deterministic assigned bias, no measurements. Perfect anticorrelation is an ideal algebraic cancellation of noise, not proof of real certainty.