Ideal stereo geometry: separation is only one part of accuracy

Assigned focal length 800 pixels; disparity standard uncertainty 0.5 pixels. Calibration and correspondence are treated as exact.
Local first-order propagation, not measured camera accuracy. The largest plotted sigma_d/disparity ratio is 0.25; linearization is weakest there.